

The Al Thomas Scholarship Award

Al Thomas was a dedicated teacher and coach for over 40 years in Montgomery County, MD and Dorchester County Public Schools as an Assistant Principal. During his three years at Cambridge-South Dorchester High School, “Big Al”, “Mr. Thomas” or “Coach Thomas” as he was known by staff and students continued to educate, coach, and build relationships with all students and staff for their future success. One of “Big Al’s” core beliefs was live every day to the fullest, rising at 4:50am each morning stating “Anyone can get up at 5am---I’m not anyone”. In his memory during the Celebration of Life by Al, the Dr. Seuss phrase: “When he worked, he worked really hard. But when he played, he really PLAYED” was referred to. Please write a short 100-200 word essay about this Dr. Seuss statement and what it means for your life and your future. This scholarship is a 1 time $500.00 gift to the winning student after they completed their first semester of college successfully.

Applicants: If selected as a winner, the committee will make the award payment to you upon successful completion of your first semester of college.

*College transcript needed after successful completion of 1st semester.

Deadline: Friday, April 27, 2018
